

I don't know much about the material presented in module 2. I hope that by knowing or learning about the things in module 2, it can lead to better changes